

I'll remember you
(Dragonfly theme)

Written by Marc Racordon Additional lyrics by Gunnar Bredl

I'll remember you

From the dark into light, one child was brought to life, from the depths into the skies, you touched me and opened my eyes.

Just before I went to thee, just before you smiled to me, my heart was just poor and empty, now feeling you, now hearing you, now seeing you, that's how I'll remember you.

Take the love, take the fruits of life, enjoy the present and never forget,
never forget I'll remember you !

In the daily worries, in the pain of this world, one child was saved from the abyss, in the weekly fights against the word of sword, you showed me the way to peace.

Tell me how to like my friends, tell me how to love my children, tell me how to light the candles, I'm seeing you, that's how I'll remember you.

Take the love, take the fruits of life,
enjoy the present and never forget,
never forget I'll remember you !

In the dances of dragonflies, one child will always go on,
in my mind and in my heart, I loved you like a son.

Now I miss you, now I cry for you,
now I wish I could be with you, I'll feel you, I'll hear you, I'll see you, that's how I'll remember you.

Take the love, take the fruits of life,
enjoy the present and never forget,
never forget I'll remember you !

(bis)
